

Code of Conduct

These are our expectations of all DIY members, workers and volunteers.

Treat each other with dignity and respect

Listen to each other
Give each other space
Give everybody a chance to be heard

Equality Act

Treat everyone equally

Respect confidentiality

What is said in the room stays in the room

Respect peoples' personal space

Support each other

Respect other peoples'
choices and views.

Don't judge people

No shouting
No swearing

No stealing

No bullying of any kind
No violence

No racism

No homophobia

No harassment

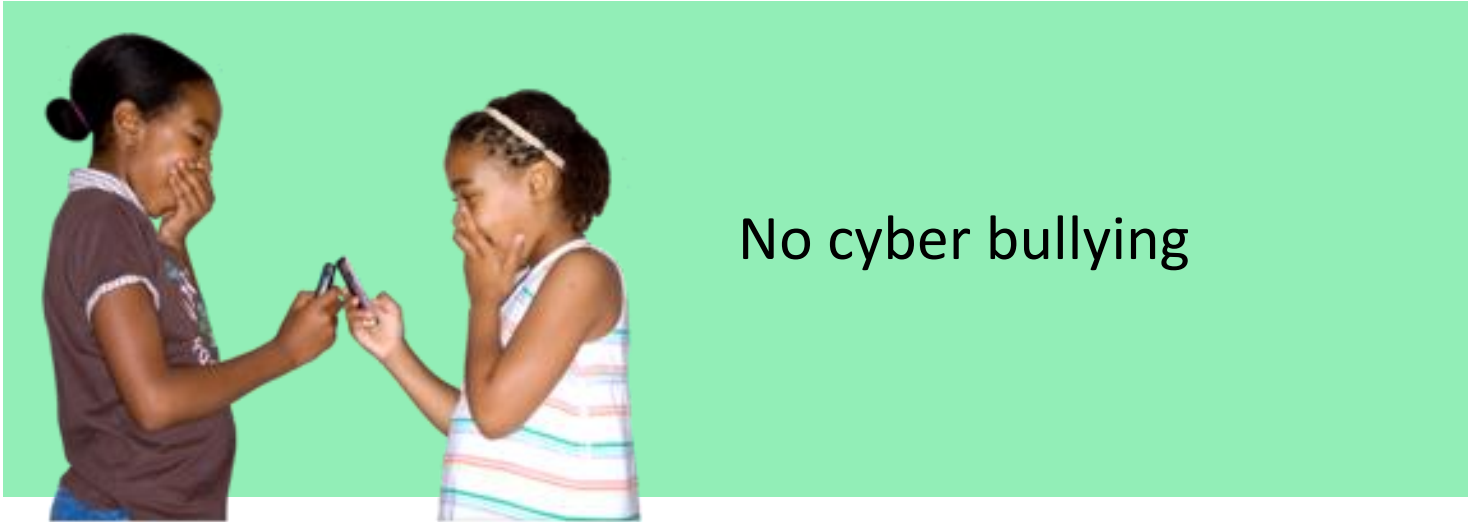

No touching people where they don't want to be touched

Don't make fun of people
Don't put people down
Don't wind people up

No texting or phoning people if they don't want to be contacted.

No cyber bullying

Don't tell lies

This Policy was approved by DIY's Board 8/2/2022.